

Intelligent machine listening

Bob Sturm

- Systems that listen and work intelligently in the real acoustic world
  - connect users (people, scholars, musicians, schools, archives, rights holders, businesses) with music and information about music
  - capitalise on the rich information in acoustic environments (device adaptation, surveillance, safety)
- Develop valid approaches to evaluating and improving intelligent acoustic systems
  - design and analysis of experiments in machine listening

